

EXAMINING FINGERPRINTS

“The tips of every one of the fingers on your hand have a combination of ridge lines and features in distinctive patterns we call fingerprints. As you grab things, those ridges trap oil and dirt residues. This residue can then be deposited elsewhere when you touch something, leaving behind an image of your fingerprint.”

-Doc Hibbel

MY FINGERPRINT

Arches?

Loops?

Whorls?

My Observations:

MY FINGERPRINT

Arches?

Loops?

Whorls?

My Observations:
